SINGAPORE, May 3 (Bernama) -- Joanne Kua, Group Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director of Malaysia-based KSK Group, is listed in the Forbes Asia's inaugural Emergent 25 List which honours businesswomen making their mark in regional enterprises.

Kua, 33, who is also the managing director of KSK Land Sdn Bhd, joined her father's insurance and finance business seven years ago.

Since then, she has transformed KSK Group into a diversified conglomerate by adding property development and technology investments to its portfolio and the group's total assets was now worth around US$410 million (US$1 = RM3.93).

Forbes Asia Editor Tim Ferguson said the women on the list represented the new cohort of top-level achievers who built on the pioneering accomplishments of those recognised in previous Power Business Women lists.

"Glass ceilings are being shattered in many quarters of Asia-Pacific business," he said in a statement.....
